

Benhaim, Mount Meron Grande Reserve Cabernet Sauvignon 2013 Upper Galilee

16.5

Bottle number 3,874 out of 8010.

Bit of VA, and a proud flare of sun-sweetened plums and berries. Doesn't taste particularly of Cabernet Sauvignon. Ripe, almost strawberry sweet, redcurrants perhaps, toffee overlay, autumn leaves, beetroot earthiness. Cigar-box spice. Composed but open and generous, plums cooked in sweet sherry with walnuts. Gentle. (TC)

Producer	Benhaim
Cuvée	Mount Meron Grande Reserve
Grape variety	Cabernet Sauvignon (/learn/grape-varieties/red/cabernet-sauvignon)
Appellation	Upper Galilee
Region	Israel
Country	Israel (/learn/wine-regions/israel)

Colour	Red
Alcohol	13.4%
Score	16.5
When to drink	2017 - 2023
Published on	29 Aug 2018
Date tasted	22 Sep 2018
Reviewer	Tamlyn Currin (/author/tamlyn-currin)
Stockist	£70 RRP